

THAT the soldier's monument in Forest cemetery, consisting in part of one of the columns in the old court house, was dedicated on July 4, 1889, in one of the most elaborate "Fourth" programs ever presented in Circleville. A gift of the Groce Post No. 156, the monument was erected in the front part of the cemetery at a cost of $1,700.

When Doersbach and Decker, contractors, began work of remodeling the court house in 1888, they offered one of the large columns to the Groce Post chapter as a suitable soldier's monument for the cemetery. It was determined that the cost of a bronze soldier and cost of erection of the column in the cemetery would entail a cost of approximately $1,700, so the Groce Post sponsored an open fair in February of 1889. The fair was successful to the extent of $1,200.

With this money the chapter financed the erection of the monument. The bronze soldier "at rest" atop the column was cast in Salem, O., and cost $550. The base of the column, cost of lettering on the monument, cost of erection, and other expenses totaled $1,700.

Col. John L. Vance, ex-member of Congress and editor of the Gallipoli Bulletin, delivered a stirring memorial address at the dedicatory ceremonies. A parade in which more than 2,000 persons participated, preceded the dedication.

The base of the soldier's monument is nine feet square. The column is 32 feet in height and the soldier at the top is nine feet high. The lettering on the base is as follows: south end, "In memory of our dead comrades, 1861-65; north end, "Erected by Groce Post No. 156 and Groce Post Relief Corps, No. 68, Department of Ohio, 1889"; west end, G. A. R. badge; east end, W. R. C. badge. Bronze bands on the column bear the lettering "Vicksburg and Gettysburg," and "Atlanta and Antietam."

It was the original intention to place the monument on the soldier's lot in the cemetery, but it was found that this location was not suitable and the present site was selected.

REPORT SHOWS OHIO INDUSTRY IN GREAT GAIN

Operations in Some Lines Better Than Pre-Depression Levels

AUTOMOBILES LEAD

All Industries Share in State Upturn

CLEVELAND, Feb. 2— "An expansion in industrial activity occurred in this district and elsewhere in the country in December and the first three weeks of January which raised operations in some lines to levels reminiscent of pre-depression levels."

Thus opened the monthly business review covering financial, industrial, and agricultural conditions in the fourth federal reserve district, comprised of Ohio and parts of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Kentucky, released by the federal reserve bank of Cleveland today.

The review also stated that the federal reserve board's seasonally adjusted index of industrial production rose 11 points in December, "the largest increase in a single month ever shown by a single month except the period following the banking holiday of 1933."

AUTO SHOWS BEST

Practically all industries shared in the upturn, the review said, but as in the previous report, the most pronounced rise was in the automobile field. The high rate of activity in that industry was decidedly beneficial to many industries in the fourth district, and employment and payrolls improved more than seasonally, it was said.

A summary of the various industries in the district follows:

Automobiles: Automobile production in December, according to the department of commerce, was 183,187 cars and trucks, an increase of 134 per cent from November.

Steel: Orders for automobile steel caused local producers to increase operations sharply. Advancing schedules were reported for 14 consecutive weeks, the average for the industry rising to 51 per cent of capacity from a low last August of 18.4 per cent. Activity in the third week of January averaged better than 50 per cent of capacity, comparing with 35 per cent a year ago and an average for the industry rising to 51 per cent of capacity from a low August of 18.4 per cent. Activity in the third week of January averaged better than 50 per cent of capacity, comparing with 35 per cent a year ago and an average of 37 per cent in the entire year 1934.

Coal: Bituminous coal production at fourth district mines in December was 11,640,000 tons, 3.8 per cent greater than in December, 1933 and exceeded any similar month since 1930. Mine operations in early 1935 continued at a higher rate than in the two preceding years.

Rubber tires: Production schedules of local tire and rubber plants increased generally in December and continued to show an upward trend in January.

SHOES GAIN TOO

Shoe: Production increased considerably more than seasonally in December, was 37 per cent ahead of the closing month of 1933, and higher than in any corresponding month since 1929.

Indiana House Votes to Ban Alienation Actions

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 2—Described as a cure for "itching palms in the guise of aching hearts," a bill to outlaw alienation of affections and kindred heart-balm suits went to the senate for action today after passing the lower house by a vote of 87 to 7.

Mrs. Roberta West Nicholson, (Dem.) only woman member of the lower house, was its author and in her maiden speech on the floor termed such suits as "legal blackmail." Mrs. Nicholson, daughter-in-law of Meredith Nicholson, new minister to Venezuela, said:

"It is my contention that extortion suits of this sort, with their attendant publicity, are a detriment to public morals.

"We doubt the genuineness of the man or woman who advertises his or her heartache to a sensation-seeking public. We suspect, and rightly, that the affliction is not so much an aching heart as an itching palm."

Women, she said, "ask no such privileges as these."

The bill would bar suits for alienation of affections, breach of promise, seduction, and naming of co-respondents in divorce proceedings.

FORGER SENT TO OHIO JAIL

Portsmouth Man Must Serve On Three Charges; Other Cases Deferred

Alfred Clifford, Portsmouth, was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary on three charges of forgery, Saturday, when he pleaded guilty in Judge Joseph W. Adkins' court.

Clifford, arrested in Portsmouth by Deputy Bryan Custer, has written at least eight bad checks and was indicted for three of them. He will serve two of the one to 20 year sentences concurrently while the other will be consecutive, which means that he will have to serve at least two years before being eligible for a parole hearing.

OTHERS IN COURT

All the six prisoners indicted by the grand jury last Tuesday were arraigned but Clifford was the only one sentenced.

Ray W. Davis, prosecutor, represented the state in court.

Edgar Turner, 18-year-old negro, pleaded guilty to breaking into a confectionery in the Pickaway Co. Livestock Co-operative association sales barn but sentence was deferred by Judge Adkins. Two other youths, Charles Smith and Hugh Montgomery, were turned over to juvenile court in this case.

George Brown, this city, was placed under $200 bond after he pleaded not guilty to non support of a one-year-old child.

Foster Speakman, indicted for burglary and larceny, pleaded not guilty and was placed under $1,000 bond.

Two Hocking-co youths, Charles Congrove and John Williams, pleaded guilty to breaking into and burglarizing the service station of J. G. Williamson, Laureville, but sentence was not passed pending investigation. They were represented in court by Attorney Frank Redfern who pleaded that they be put on parole Judge Adkins instructed Deputy Robert Armstrong to visit in the community in which they reside and file report on their reputations. Congrove is 18 and Williams is 22.

SPAGHT GIVEN WELFARE JOB

Davey Lauds Akron Man Whom He Wanted as Liquor Control Director

COLUMBUS, Feb. 2—Oakley Spaght, former state representative from Akron who previously has been chosen by Governor Martin L. Davey as a possible candidate for the position of liquor control director, today was appointed assistant state welfare director by the chief executive.

In a statement, Gov. Davey said:

While it was my desire to have Oakley Spaght occupy the important post of state liquor director, it is apparent constitutional provisions makes him ineligible. Therefore, because of his high character, ability and unquestioned reputation for integrity, energy and real capacity, it has seemed proper to find him another post of importance to the government.

"I doubt if there is any place that requires more of these qualities than that of assistant welfare director which deals with so many state institutions and involves so many millions of dollars expenditure. It may be interesting to note that in these state institutions it is necessary to feed 36,000 people a day and to provide them with clothing and other necessities as well as to supervise the maintenance of numerous buildings and farm acreage.

CHILLICOTHE CITY TREASURY IN NEED

Pay Checks Handed Out Friday But Workers Are Warned no More Money Ready

CHILLICOTHE, Feb. 2—City employees, given their pay checks for January, were trying to stretch their pennies today.

As they were handed their salaries, City Auditor L. Hibbler informed them that he did not know when they would be paid again.

He explained that only $2,500 was left in the city treasury for various expenses and that no new tax moneys were in sight until March 1, at least.

The city has received no money for its general fund so far this year, although there was a small balance in special funds at the start of the year. The city since has received an allocation of auto tax funds. Drawing against these special funds until the money can be replaced from revenues to the general fund, Hibbler had about $7,000 with which to meet the Friday payroll which used up about $4,500 of this.

There are a number of bills outstanding against special accounts, Hibbler said, including some for the park lake improvement, and he feels that it will be impossible to meet any more payrolls or any portion of them from the remaining funds.

PAYMENT OF TAX DELAYED UNTIL MARCH

Sales Tax Set-up Delays Real Estate Collection, Hoffman Announces

PERSONAL ON FEB. 15

Tax Commission Rules on Store Records

Collection of personal taxes will start February 15 but the real estate tax books will not be open before the middle of March, Earl L. Hoffman, county treasurer, announced today.

The new sales tax set-up has somewhat delayed collection of real estate taxes. Work will be started on the books next week, Mr. Hoffman said. The exact date real taxes can be paid has not yet been determined.

The office has been doing much work under the sale tax division with $4,848.27 having been received from the sale of stamps. A total of $27,300 worth of stamps were received before the sale started.

674 HAVE PERMITS

Six hundred and seventy-four Circleville and Pickaway-co retailers have purchased $1 vendor's licenses from the county auditor's office while about 525 of them have purchased stamps. Some have purchased stamps more than once, Mr. Hoffman said.

The 1, 2, 3, and 6 cents stamps are put up in bunches and no sales of less than $1 are being made because the packages are not being broken. Persons buying stamps of larger denominations can buy as many as they wish.

Records of all sales and of invoices should be kept. The Herald was informed Saturday by an attaché of the office of Quincy Davis, tax commissioner, in response to a query.

MANY UNCERTAIN

Several local merchants, some of whom are restaurateurs, were uncertain concerning the tax commission's ruling. The informant said the office requested "that records of all invoices and sales be kept to permit our inspectors to quickly ascertain what is taking place in the various stores."

HUEY CONTINUES "DEATH" INQUIRY

Charges Oil Company Planned Assassination; Machine Guns Guard Capital

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 2—A carefully built chain of evidence designed to support charges that the Standard Oil company backed a purported plot to assassinate Senator Huey Long lay in the records of District Judge J. D. Womack, Long appointee, today as the Louisiana dictator prepared to renew his ex-parte, radio broadcast inquiry into an armed citizen rebellion in his political domain.

The inquiry into the supposed armed uprising and "murder plot" which the administration used as a reason for clamping the parish of East Baton Rouge under martial law, was resumed at 10 o'clock this morning, under the protection of machine guns flanking all approaches to the capital.

Ernest L. Bourgeois, youthful president of the Square Deal association, anti-Long group, was arrested by the state's secret police force, questioned and then released. Bourgeois fled into hiding last Saturday during the brush between his followers and the militia at the airport.

2 GANGSTERS DIE IN CHAIR

Mais and Legenza Go Quietly To Electric Chair In Virginia Prison

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 2—Robert "Bloody Bob" Mais and Walter Legenza, whose leadership of the tri-state gang brought death to an untold number, today paid the penalty of their career of gunplay, murder and robbery, by death in the electric chair at the Virginia state penitentiary here.

The two gangsters who were to be hanged were executed after dawn cast its first dreary light over the death house.

Mais was the first to go down murderers' alley to the eery, horrifying white-walled little chamber in which stood the throne of death—more commonly known to gangland as the "hot seat."

A few seconds later, the frail body of Mais crashed against the straps as 2300 volts of electricity coursed through him.

There was this one forward surge, and then the body became rigid. The thing that a few seconds ago was Robert Mais, was an inanimate piece of flesh, devoid of sensation although the hot current played through his body for a few seconds longer.

WHEELED TO CHAIR

Considerable delay was caused in the interval between the two executions by the use of two sets of witnesses. After the first jury had left the execution chamber and made their way slowly to the prison dining room, the twelve new witnesses then filed in and it took several minutes to get them seated and quiet.

Once they were seated, the guards lost no time. Legenza, the man with the broken leg which still had not healed, was rolled down death corridor in a wheeler chair. Witnesses bent forward as the strang procession entered the chamber.

The two gangsters went to their death technically for the murder of E. M. Huband, driver of a federal reserve bank truck who was shot to death during a holdup last March.

But this murder was only one of many attributed to the pair. According to police officials they staged more than a score of daring robberies, shot their way out of many a trap in the many months that the tri-state mob existed.

Mr. Groundhog Orders No More Cold Spells

COLUMBUS, Feb. 2—Mr. Groundhog poked his snub nose from his winter nest today in keeping with the annual custom of groundhog day and failed to see his shadow.

He therefore decided, according to his own quaint rules, that there would be no more severe weather this winter.

He saw his shadow later in the day, however.

Mr. Groundhog pointed out, however, that he makes his observation at daybreak and that therefore any belated appearance of the sun would not mean six more weeks of winter.

As a weather prophet, the groundhog predicted that there would be no more severe winter blasts.

NEXT WEEK TO SEE CLOSE OF BRUNO'S TRIAL

Defense Expects to Rest By Thursday; Fisch, Sharpe Again Named

WITNESS UNCERTAIN

Reilly in New York Seeking Witnesses

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 2—

Bruno Richard Hauptmann—as calm, non-communicative and unfathomable as ever—laid in his brightly-lit cell today, making the most of another week-end respite from the court room where he is the central figure in the murder trial of the generation.

It may be his last week-end respite. For, by next Saturday, it is quite possible the jury of four women and eight men may be deliberating his fate—death in the electric chair? acquittal? clemency?

Everybody close to the scene realizes that this trial, with its throbbing drama, its strange witnesses and its weird testimony, is gradually drawing to a close.

END BY SATURDAY

By Thursday next the defense will be ready to rest, according to Atty. Edward J. Reilly. Rebuttal testimony by the state will require only a short time and Attorney General David T. Wilentz thinks that by the end of the week the case will be closed.

Then all that will remain will be the closing arguments, the judge's charge to the jury—and the verdict.

Defense Attorney Reilly today was in New York, rounding up witnesses. The week-end adjournment was granted at his request because he frankly admitted to Justice Thomas W. Treanor that he was running out of ready witnesses.

The belief prevails here that the defense has less witnesses yet to summon to the stand than they indicate. They say they still have about thirty to call but nobody can figure where they can get half that many.

Some of the defense witnesses have proved to be ideal foils for the state when subjected to cross-examination. One developed to be a former bootlegger of home-made rum, another ran a restaurant which was raided several times by the police and a third admitted he had been arrested for various crimes, including assault and battery and rape.

A defense witness whose story is especially intriguing is Peter H. Sommer, manager of a build-Continued On Page Eight

SLOT MACHINE OWNERS WARNED

COLUMBUS, Feb. 2—Six Chillicothe liquor and beer establishments, charged with allowing slot machines in their business places, today were allowed to keep their permits after receiving a warning from Acting Liquor Control Director Joseph Scofield.

Although Scofield had power under a regulation passed by the liquor board to revoke the permits, he merely admonished the owners of the places. He declined to say whether his action was in line with his recent recommendation that the board lift the slot machine ban because he believed it was impossible to enforce it.

GUN MOLL TO LOSE CHILD; FACES TRIAL

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2—Dolores Delaney's baby boy will not be reared by his mother.

Instead, he will be placed in a children's institution, while Miss Delaney, the girl left behind by Public Enemy Number One Alvin Karpis is returned to Florida to face trial on charges of harboring a fugitive. The boy, weighing seven pounds, four ounces, was born here yesterday.

Wounded in the leg, Miss Delaney and Winona Burdette were left behind in an Atlantic City hotel January 20 when Karpis and his companion, Harry Campbell, shot their way out of a police trap. Both girls are under $50,000 bail on the fugitive charges.

The Church Invites You

A REVIVAL OF RELIGION NEEDED

Roger Babson has said, "The churches are to America what a compass is to a ship, or a steering wheel to an automobile. Legislation, labor unions, employers' associations and all other organizations are mere shells of an egg. Nations ultimately rise or fall in accordance with their religions. Our liberty, security and prosperity depends upon the churches. All we have that is worth while, we owe to them. Those of us who are prosperous may think that we can get on without the church, but let us not forget our church. We may have received enough religious momentum from our parents to carry us through but we haven't enough to carry our children through. Only by a revival of religion, in which they must take an active interest, can our children's future be secured." Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for February 3

PETER'S RESTORATION.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 16:7; Luke 24:34; John 20:1-19; John 21:1-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee, Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep, John 21:17.
PRIMARY TOPIC—When Jesus Helped Peter Try Again.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter Learned When He Failed.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Prove Our Love for Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Test of Loyalty.

As there were seven definite steps in Peter's downfall, so there are seven definite steps in his restoration. These steps in both his downfall and his restoration were most strikingly presented by C. Campbell Morgan at the Bible conference in Northfield in 1898.

I. Christ's Prayer for Peter (Luke 22:31, 32).
Little did Peter realize the testings through which he would be forced to pass. Christ revealed to him that Satan desired to have him that he had already prayed for his abiding faith. We see thus that before Peter fell the Lord began the preparation for his reclamation. The Lord knew that soon he would have to announce to him that before the cock crew he would deny him thrice.

II. The Look of Jesus (Luke 22:61, 62).
This look was not one of contempt, but one, doubtless, filled with pity and pain. It revealed the heart of God. It brought to Peter the full consciousness of his cowardice and disloyalty, and his blasphemous words of denial, while at the same time displaying Christ's love and pity.

III. Christ's Message Through the Women (Mark 16:7).

The Lord's message was "Go tell my disciples and Peter." Had the message merely been, "Go tell my disciples," Peter would have believed himself not included. The message indicated that Christ had particular consideration for him and loved him still. What new hope filled Peter's heart as he heard this message from the risen Lord is seen in his words: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" (1 Pet. 1:3).

IV. A Personal Interview With the Risen Lord (Luke 24:34).

The declaration is here made that the risen Lord had appeared to Simon. The nature of the conversation is hidden in mystery. It may be that the Lord reminded him of his boasting self-confidence, his warning himself at the enemies' fire and his blasphemy, but only to assure him of his unchanging love and that the Cross which he shunned was the very means of covering up his grievous sins (Luke 24:34; cf. John 20:1-10).

V. Peter's Open Confession of Love (John 21:11-17).

The disciples had gone back to their fishing. As they returned weary and hungry Christ invited them to breakfast. In connection with this ministry of providing food and warmth, Jesus, by skillful questions, induced Peter to confess him three times. A vital step in Peter's restoration was his professing anew his love for his Lord. What marvelous grace, that the one who had across the fire of the enemy denied his Lord should now across the fire prepared by the Lord confess his love for his Lord.

VI. His Word Given Back (John 21:17, 18).

Instead of putting poor Peter on probation before giving him anything to do, he immediately brought him back into fellowship with his Lord in service. It was because Peter passed satisfactorily the examination and the Lord saw his real love for him that he permitted Peter to begin his work.

VII. Willingness to Suffer for Christ (John 21:18, 19).

While Peter had now openly confessed Christ and had received at the Lord's hands his work, he needed to be made willing to drink the bitter cup of suffering for his Lord. Jesus made it clear to him that he was to follow his Lord in crucifixion. He was now willing to suffer the shame of the cross for the glory of God. Peter, with the other disciples, later counted it joy that they were counted worthy to suffer (Acts 5:41). It was the Cross of Christ over which Peter blundered. After his restoration his greatest happiness was to suffer for Christ's sake.

HARBORING ILL

Many homes and many lives are unhappy because of harbored ill. Once there lived a man whom nobody liked—hard and sullen. To a "good morning" he would grunt sulkily, his eyes fastened to the ground.

The simple truth was that in his youth, a companion had done him a grievous injury. "I'll remember it to my dying day" was his reaction and he did. When his dying day actually came, however, he realized that the ranking memory of that youthful wrong had soured and darkened his whole life. "I've gone over it by myself every morning," he moaned as he lay gasping in his comfortless shanty, "and I've thought of it every night. I've cursed him a hundred times each day. I see now that my curses have eaten out my soul; they've been like gall on my tongue and gravel in my teeth. My hate has hurt nobody but myself. But God knows it has turned my life into hell."

student opinion

Question: Did you enjoy the President's Ball?

Marianne Bennett, senior: I enjoyed the President's Ball very much. One contributing factor to the pleasure of all who attended, was the excellent music.

George Rader, junior: It was terrific! I think it was the best dance held in Circleville for a long time.

The orchestra was swell and the money went for a good cause. In my opinion it was a howling success.

Anne Thacher, junior: Did I enjoy the President's Ball? I'll say I did. The music was grand, and could that orchestra play it? The crowd was just right, not too large and not too small. I had a simply grand time and I'm sure everyone else did.

Betty Bowsher, freshman: I enjoyed it very much but I would have enjoyed it much more if I hadn't had to think of going to school the following day.

Junior Sweyer, junior: I did. I think that it was better than last year. I liked the orchestra very much, especially the act put on by the director and his partner.

I think that everyone had a good time although the next day I was very sleepy.

TWO JINXES BROKEN BY VARSITY SQUAD

At the end of the first round of the "Tiger" basketball schedule two very definite jinxes have been broken.

The local varsity during this period has defeated Carlton Smith's fast moving Bexley squad for the first time in three years and also won its first out of town game against Marysville.

The following scores have been turned in this season:

Academy 21	Circleville 14
Groveport 24	Circleville 20
Chillicothe 24	Circleville 7
London 10	Circleville 28
Amanda 30	Circleville 27
Westerville 25	Circleville 16
Circleville 21	Ashville 40
Circleville 23	Delaware 26
Bexley 19	Circleville 26
Grandview 30	Circleville 17
Circleville 22	Marysville 17

The varsity opened the second round of its schedule Friday at Westerville and will meet each of its previous league foes again.

English Class Hears Roy Brown's Address

A Chinese burial, which he witnessed in the land of rice and chop-sticks, was vividly described to the third period Business English class Friday morning by Mr. Roy "Monk" Brown, recently returned from the United States navy after 17 years' service.

In depicting the ceremony, Mr. Brown, a Circleville resident, related that members of the family in which a death has occurred use the casket as a dining table. "Children," he related, "play leap-frog over the box!"

Continuing, the speaker said that the oldest son in the family sleeps on top of the casket during the time it remains in state (in this instance 49 days).

A treatise of the Chinese communication system, including telephone, telegraph and cable, concluded Mr. Brown's address.

SOPHOMORE CLASS ELECTS DON HENRY

Willard Hosler was elected to the vice-president's chair.

Dorothy Carter defeated June West for the secretarial job and Carl Mader was re-elected treasurer by defeating a large number of candidates running for the "money caretaker" office.

The new president is a three-letter man and is a member of the band and the Hi-Y.

Eloise Hatz, new president of Day's Willing Workers 3rd period Business English club, succeeds Martha McCready, retiring head.

"Our Country, Right or Wrong"

"Our country, right or wrong" is said to have been the toast offered by the distinguished American naval officer, Stephen Decatur, at a banquet in his honor at Norfolk, Va., in 1815. The complete toast was as follows: "Our Country: In her intercourse with foreign nations, may she ever be right; but our country, right or wrong."—Pathfinder Magazine.

Mrs. Head Reviews Third Book Here Friday Night

A delightful program of organ music by Miss Abbe Mills Clark preceded the splendid book review given by Mrs. Depew Head, Friday evening, in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Westminster Bible class.

Members of the Young Ladies' Bible class of the Methodist church were guests of the Westminster Bible class for the book review.

Mrs. Head, more appealing than ever, enthralled her audience, as she gave, with a marked degree of accuracy and a thorough understanding of locale, this excellent novel of Franz Werfel entitled "Forty Days of Musa Dagh."

This book, containing 800 pages of a type not generally chosen as a best seller, was one of the five highest for the last five months, also the book of the month for December. The book contains no humor and has a most difficult title. Mrs. Head, before preparing her review, found it necessary to interview Mr. Khourie of the Khourie Shop of Columbus in order to give the correct pronunciation to the 60 proper names of the characters appearing in the novel also the innumerable villages that are mentioned.

The author, Franz Werfel, while visiting factories in Armenia noticed the pained faces of the Armenian children and inquired as to the cause of this condition. He was informed that these children were survivors of the siege of "Musa Dagh." He inquired further, hence the astounding facts of his novel tell the heart-rending story of this true incident.

Armenia was at one time conquered by Alexander the Great, held for two centuries. In 1541 it was conquered by the Turks, in 1878 by the Russians and then Persia obtained a part of it. All that was left of Armenia was a republic, a shrewd but honest people. In 1910 all internal and external trade was owned by the Armenians, this the Turks resented.

Turkey gave threats for the Armenians to leave this section of the country. Gabriel Bogradian, the hero, youngest grandson of Avedis Bogradian, was worshipped throughout Armenia as the patron saint, teacher and philosopher. Gabriel went to Paris met and married Juliette, a lovely French woman. Steven, their son was born. At this time, his brother asks him to return to Stamboul. Trouble is raging throughout Turkey and Armenia. War has started in Belgium, it is July 1914.

Gabriel wants to send Juliette and Steven to Switzerland but she refuses and they visit the mountain of Musa Dagh, while their Gabriel dreams of war. A deep love of father for son envelopes Gabriel and Steven. As they descend he finds plots to surround the villages near Musa Dagh.

He visits an old friend, who presents him with a coin with this inscription, "To the inexplicable in us and beyond us." He advises Gabriel to return home. In his villa he finds Juliette surrounded by admirers, unaware of the impending dangers so near them, only he and the priest realize their serious plight.

At last the war starts in the little country of Zeitum, Armenians are killed by the Turks and driven away. Like animals, women and children perish by the roadside. Large groups of them were used for construction work by the Turks and then shot down so that the race could not be procreated. Gabriel brooded over the trouble.

Steven, now a young man, and Juliette took refuge on Musa Dagh. He tells priest of plans of the Turks to wipe out the seven villages and with the priests help they organize the people and order them to take their belongings up on Musa Dagh. A settlement was built on the summit and military fortifications around the mountains. Along with all other anxiety, a windstorm nearly relieved them of everything they had salvaged.

Morris, an Armenian, arrives and becomes an admirer of Juliette, who has been neglected by Gabriel, who is now military chief and is encompassed with the unsurmountable task of saving his people.

The Turks make their first drive on the people encamped on Musa

Dagh and are driven back by the 5000 soldiers, who are armed with the crudest of military equipment. A second attack is waged and still the Armenians repel the Turks, however there is no rejoicing as too many were killed. The Turkish general is unable to secure aid of a neighboring general because of military jealousy. Again personal jealousy saved Musa Dagh. Only one night was left until the big drive of the Turks on the Armenians. A message had to be sent. Haik, a chum of Steven, was chosen to deliver it.

Morris, the lover of Juliette, tries to persuade her to leave the camp but she is stricken with Marsh fever and is cared for by Skield, an Armenian girl, who is madly in love with Gabriel, however he has only a kindly affection for her because of her kindness to Juliette.

Steven leaves the mountain and is stricken with marsh fever and taken captive by the Turks. He dies. A large wooden cross marked his grave on the 31st day of the siege of Musa Dagh.

The Turk soldiers climb the Mt. of Musa Dagh, steal all the sheep and provisions. The 40th day dawned, the priest too weak to stand held mass. Three days of fighting had prevailed. He was tied to the cross by the Turkish rebels. As they gathered there a stray bullet hit Gabriel, but he regains consciousness from the shock. An enraged soldier finds a flag that Juliette had made, which bore this inscription, "Christians in Need." In his anger he waved it back and forth. A French fleet saw the flag and landed in the harbor below.

The Admiral of the fleet told Gabriel it was his leadership, possible only with God's help, that brought all these people to safety. Juliette, on a stretcher, was taken aboard a ship bound for Paris. Gabriel eluded the admiral and slowly climbed back up Musa Dagh, with his coin in hand, "To the Inexplicable in us and beyond us." Sharing the destiny of God he crossed to his son's grave, where he was shot through the head by a Turk. There death was not defeat, but a symbol of man alive in the shadow of death.

"Who knows how soon, our days are numbered. Live nobly rise above the earth, achieve that thing the Armenians say of Gabriel on the shrine at Musa Dagh, 'fundamental brotherhood of all living, one God, alike for Jew, Christian, unbeliever' and 'to the inexplicable in us and beyond us.'"

WESTERVILLE BEATS TIGERS IN ROUGH TILT

Marysville Upsets Grandview to Throw League Race Into Deadlock

The Central Buckeye league race was upset considerably Friday evening when Jerry Kingsmore's Marysville team, hungry for victory after tasting five defeats, reached new heights by handing Bill Zwick's Grandview team a 30-21 beating.

The loss was the first for Grandview but it dropped the Bobcats into a tie with Westerville for the top spot.

Westerville, in a game that resembled a football contest on a basketball floor, defeated the Tigers 28-19.

Delaware defeated Bexley, 22-21, handing Carlton Smith's team its fourth straight defeat.

BALLENGER STOPPED
The Tigers were just as good a ball club as Westerville Friday evening with Dick Melson effectively stopping BALLENGER, tall blonde Westerville center.

The final score was just the result of a tall and heavy team gradually beating a smaller team into submission. It was nothing out of the ordinary to see a Westerville cager shoot at the hoop, miss, then go tearing headlong into the group of players trying to retrieve the ball. Referee Krieger, who boasts that he has worked some of the best college games in Ohio this year, would have looked much better on the back of a horse, Friday evening, than he did on the basketball court. He was always about two plays back of the ball game.

Melson was the only player discharged on fouls and a couple of those called on him were lurid.

The game was typical of all played at Westerville with roughness, most of which was uncalled for, predominating the play.

TIED AT HALF
The Tigers took a 6-2 lead at the first period but the score was tied 8-8 at the half. Westerville was ahead 18-13 at the end of the third period.

The Tiger's zone defense worked well at times but it left Robertson open too often at the side of the court and Westerton too often in the middle just back of the foul circle. These two boys did most of Westerville's scoring, the former getting eight points and the latter six. Henry, a forward, also scored six for the winners.

Grant tallied eight of the Tigers' 19 points while John Jenkins, for the first time this year, went scoreless.

Westerville was handicapped by the loss of McVay, clever guard, through injuries. He broke his right ankle during football season then broke it again in practice this week.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

TOO EARLY? MAYBE!

It's February 2, ground-hog day, and in not so many more weeks little white pills will start to fly around the airways of the Pickaway Country club golf season and the count of club is looking forward to a real season.

The trustees are contemplating and giving considerable study to a new membership plan which would permit many more of the city's and county's residents to partake of the club facilities.

GILMORE CHAIRMAN
Dr. Glen D. Phillips, club president, today announced that he has again named reliable Charlie Gilmore as chairman of the greens committee.

Other members of the committee are Robert Musser, John D. Bragg and Felix R. Caldwell.

Arrangements have not yet been completed for the operation of the "shop" this summer. Tink Hill and Bob Price presided during the last playing season—For your information, Dewey C. Black is the club champion.

Bill Bonthron, great Princeton miler, is a stamp collector. Harvard gets an even break with Princeton in that respect, as Bob Harlow, new football coach, is a demon philatelist, too.

Most thoroughbred race horses sleep standing up. Man O'War was an exception... at bedtime he hit the mattress like the rest of us. Several members of the Chicago White Sox infield are said to sleep standing up, however.

PATIENCE REQUIRED

Be of good cheer. Just suppose you were Jack McQuinn, a young first baseman the Yankees have stationed in Toronto to wait for Lou Gehrig to wear out! Mr. McQuinn is in about the same position as a movie theatre piano and organ player I know who is patiently waiting for the talkies to "blow over."

Jack Quinn, who took a few days off upon reaching his fifty-ninth birthday, reports he is ready to resume his career as a major league pitcher if somebody will sign him up. Cleveland hasn't heard from Cy Young. The youngest catcher the White Sox have is Luke Sewell, who is 34 years old, and just a rookie compared to Ruel and Shea... but then the age of White Sox catchers doesn't make a whole lot of difference.

NICE OF YOU, MAX

That was a swell compliment Max Baer paid to heavyweights the other day... speaking of a proposed tour of Europe he said his party would stop off in London where kid brother Buddy could get a bit of exercise by knocking off Jack Petersen, British champ.

SPORTSMEN TO GO AFTER CROWS

Twenty-five crows have been released in Pickaway-co by the state conservation department. Their legs are banded with numbers from one to 25. Prizes for the birds range from $1 to $25.

The conservation division is determined to reduce the crow population in Ohio and is taking this means to do so.

H. E. Betz, president of the Pickaway-co Farmer's and Sportsman's association, urges county sportsmen to hunt the crows.

W. H. Reinhardt, chief of the conservation department, calls the crows the "out-of-doors gangster." Reinhardt outlined several excellent methods of slaughtering the "black rascals": organize "vigilante groups" and shoot into crow roosts at night, many roosts contain thousands of crows; use mounted hawks or owls as decoys to attract crows; punch down their nests during the spring.

MAC SMITH AHEAD

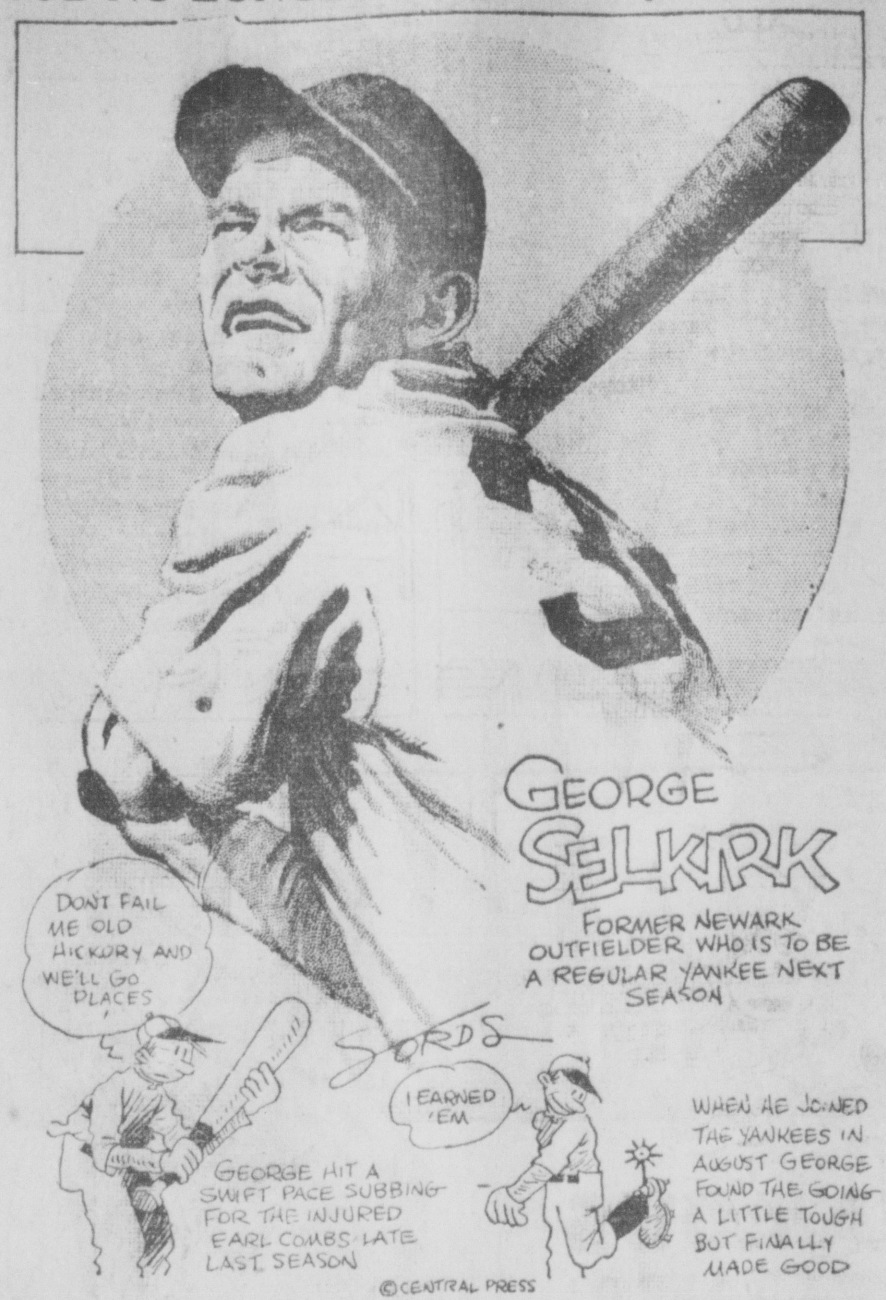

GLENDAL, Cal., Feb. 2—MacDonald Smith, veteran campaigner and shotmaker extraordinary, today was the center of attention as he teed off with money-golfer Gene Sarzen and Denny Shute, former British open title holder in the third round of the Oakland $6,500 open tournament.

The Carnoustie master had forged to the front in the second round with a sparkling 67, three strokes under tournament par. Smith's 36 hole total was 135 placing him five strokes ahead of his nearest competitor.

Behind Mac the field is bunched. Four players, slender Ray Mangrum of Los Angeles, with 170-140; veteran Lex Robson of Toronto, Canada, with 70-70-140; youthful Jimmy Hines of Timber Point, I. L., with 72-68-140, and "Light Horse" Harry Cooper of Chicago, with 70-70-140, are trailing "the Smith"—hoping he may break enough to permit him to overtake him.

5 TEAMS WIN DOUBLE BILLS

Ashville Boys Win But Girls Are Held to Tie By Scioto-Twp Team

Pickaway-co loop basketball games went according to schedule Friday evening with favorites coming through.

Ashville boys defeated Scioto 31 to 10 while the Commercial Point girls were holding the Ashville lassies to a 10-10 deadlock. Since in girls' basketball overtime is not permitted the game ended that way.

Walnut-twp teams, boys and girls, won a double header from the Pickaway teams on the latter court in a splendid evening of entertainment. Decisions in both games were not certain until the games were over.

Walnut girls won 15 to 11 and the boys 27 to 24. Pickaway reserves defeated the Walnut reserve team 30 to 3.

Perry-twp won a double bill from Jackson-twp at Atlanta, the boys coping 28 to 7 and the girls 16 to 11.

Durby-twp swept a twin bill from Washington-twp when the boys went on a scoring rampage to win 51 to 8 and the girls easily snatched victory 24 to 11.

Muhlenberg's two teams won double headers from Deercreek in games played Thursday evening. The boys score was 22-17 while the girls were not quite so close.

Saltcreek games have not been reported.

New Holland took a brace of contests from Saltcreek on the Adelphi court. The boys won 35-8 and the girls 25-13.

The games closed the Saltcreek home season, three games remaining away from home.

NEXT WEEK TO SEE CLOSE OF BRUNO'S TRIAL

ing for the New York city department of welfare and also a fingerprint expert. He will resume the stand Monday for further cross-examination.

BRINGS BACK DEAD

Sommer told a strange story—one that brought to mind the wraithlike figures of the dead Isidor Fisch and Violet Sharpe.

He testified that about midnight of the night of March 1, 1932—the night the Lindbergh baby was kidnapped—he saw on a ferry boat running from Weehawken, N. J., to New York, two men who met a woman with a baby in her arms outside the ferry house on the New York side. This was several hours after the kidnapping.

“One of the men, he said, was tall, the other short. They helped the woman and baby on to a cross-town street car and then disappeared. Sommer told the jury. The baby was blonde and the woman had the child wrapped in a blanket.

Sommer was handed a photograph of Isidor Fisch by Defense Attorney Reilly who asked him if that was one of the men he saw on the boat.

“It looks like him,” said Sommer.

Later, Reilly handed him a picture of Violet Sharpe and asked him if she was the woman. The witness peered at the photograph and replied:

“It might be.”

Thus, once more did these two dead persons figure in the records of this remarkable case. Fisch was the former partner of Hauptmann in the furrier business, the man the defendant says left in his safe-keeping before he sailed for Germany where he died a shoe box containing more than $14,000 of the Lindbergh ransom money. Violet Sharpe was the maid in the home of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's mother-in-law, Mrs. Dwight Morrow, at Englewood, N. J. Miss Sharpe committed suicide during the kidnapping investigation.

WILENTZ SURPRISED

Attorney General Wilentz did not conceal his surprise at Sommer's testimony. During his cross-examination of the witness Wilentz tried to trap him by showing him a picture of an ex-convict and asking him:

“Does this picture resemble the other man you say you saw that night?”

“Well, yes—maybe, yes, maybe no,” replied Sommer.

“You wouldn't say this picture isn't the man?”

“No, I wouldn't say it wasn't,” Sommer said.

The witness was confused. To numerous questions he answered: “maybe, maybe no” He was anything but clear.

The picture of Fisch was re-shown to him and he admitted the first time he saw this picture was when he came into the court room to testify. This statement led Wilentz to shout:

“You mean to say you came all the way over here to testify without ever having seen the picture which you never saw before and which was the first picture shown you?”

“Well, yes, 'er—I don't mean that exactly,” replied the witness.

Adjournment came at this point and Wilentz had to defer further cross-examination until Monday.

“It is easy to see how the purchase of Fleet-Wing petroleum products helps to boost local business,” said A. Merie Hooper, Fleet-Wing official, who was the guest of Glenn I. Nickerson, president of the Circleville Oil Co. The Circleville Oil Company yesterday opened its beautiful new super-service station at Court and High streets.

The attractive new super-service station opened yesterday in Circleville is positive evidence of the fact.

“Circleville Oil has been able to give additional employment to Circleville citizens because of the patronage given to a local independent merchant. This company will continue to help business with steady employment to the men who will run this station,” Mr. Hooper said in an interview.

The fact that every Fleet-Wing dealer is a local independent merchant creates a ready acceptance for their unexcelled Fleet-Wing products are the fastest selling in the world among those sold exclusively by independents.

Ever since President Roosevelt advised Americans to help local business by patronizing the local independent, Fleet-Wing dealers have noted a nice increase in business, he said.

Independents such as The Circleville Oil Co. spend their money where they make it, pay local taxes, employ local people, put their money in local banks and are interested in the community in which they do business, stated Mr. Hooper.

NEW UPTOWN LOCATION AT COURT AND HIGH STREETS

WHAT IS TELEPHONE SERVICE WORTH IN AN EMERGENCY?

Did You Know
By Pat J. Kirwin

THAT the soldier's monument in Forest cemetery, consisting in part of one of the columns in the old court house, was dedicated on July 4, 1889, in one of the most elaborate "Fourth" programs ever presented in Circleville. A gift of the Groce Post No. 156, the monument was erected in the front part of the cemetery at a cost of $1,700.

When Doersbach and Decker, contractors, began work of remodeling the court house in 1888, they offered one of the large columns to the Groce Post chapter as a suitable soldier's monument for the cemetery. It was determined that the cost of a bronze soldier and cost of erection of the column in the cemetery would entail a cost of approximately $1,700, so the Groce Post sponsored an open fair in February of 1889. The fair was successful to the extent of $1,200.

With this money the chapter financed the erection of the monument. The bronze soldier "at rest" atop the column was cast in Salem, O., and cost $550. The base of the column, cost of lettering on the monument, cost of erection, and other expenses totaled $1,700.

Col. John L. Vance, ex-member of Congress and editor of the Gallipolis Bulletin, delivered a stirring memorial address at the dedicatory ceremonies. A parade in which more than 2,000 persons participated, preceded the dedication.

The base of the soldier's monument is nine feet square. The column is 32 feet in height and the soldier at the top is nine feet high. The lettering on the base is as follows: south end, "In memory of our dead comrades, 1861-65; north end, "Erected by Groce Post No. 156 and Groce Post Relief Corps, No. 68, Department of Ohio, 1889"; west end, G. A. R. badge; east end, W. R. C. badge. Bronze bands on the column bear the lettering "Vicksburg and Gettysburg," and "Atlanta and Antietam."

It was the original intention to place the monument on the soldier's lot in the cemetery, but it was found that this location was not suitable and the present site was selected.

That 45 years ago this month while hunting near East Ringgold, Lee M. Hummel and Thomas McManamy killed 42 squirrels. These were the days of no game laws.

That baseball organizations were organized both in Ashville and Circleville in May, 1889. H. P. Lorbach was named president of the Circleville Baseball and Athletic company. Heading the Ashville Baseball Association was Benjamin Beavers. The Circleville group sponsored an exhibition game between the Cincinnati Reds and the local Buckeyes in June of that year. The Buckeyes were humbled by a score of 23 to 0. Excusing the score, The Herald of the time said "the Buckeyes played the worst game we ever saw." Directors of the Circleville company were G. C. Bayer, Nelson J. Ruggles, Joseph G. Wilder, D. J. Meyers, Dr. T. B. Wright and W. Murdock. Games were played on a lot on N. Court street belonging to Dr. George Row.

That Circleville was one of the first cities to assist in alleviating suffering in Johnson, Pa., following the flood of May 31, 1889, in which it is said 8,000 persons perished. More than $3,000 in money and contributions were sent to the distressed area from here. Col. J. A. Hawks was in charge of securing contributions in Pickaway-co.

REPORT SHOWS OHIO INDUSTRY IN GREAT GAIN

Operations in Some Lines Better Than Pre-Depression Levels

AUTOMOBILES LEAD

All Industries Share in State Upturn

CLEVELAND, Feb. 2.—"An expansion in industrial activity occurred in this district and elsewhere in the country in December and the first three weeks of January which raised operations in some lines to levels reminiscent of pre-depression levels."

Thus opened the monthly business review covering financial, industrial, and agricultural conditions in the fourth federal reserve district, comprised of Ohio and parts of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Kentucky, released by the federal reserve bank of Cleveland today.

The review also stated that the federal reserve board's seasonally adjusted index of industrial production rose 11 points in December. "The largest increase in a single month ever shown by a single month except the period following the banking holiday of 1933."

AUTO SHOWS BEST
Practically all industries shared in the upturn, the review said, but as in the previous report, the most pronounced rise was in the automobile field. The high rate of activity in that industry was decidedly beneficial to many industries in the fourth district, and employment and payrolls improved more than seasonally, it was said.

A summary of the various industries in the district follows:
Automobiles: Automobile production in December, according to the department of commerce, was 183,187 cars and trucks, an increase of 134 per cent from November.

Steel: Orders for automobile steel caused local producers to increase operations sharply. Advancing schedules were reported for 14 consecutive weeks, the average for the industry rising to 51 per cent of capacity from a low last August of 18.4 per cent. Activity in the third week of January averaged better than 50 per cent of capacity, comparing with 35 per cent a year ago and an average for the industry rising to 51 per cent of capacity from a low August of 18.4 per cent. Activity in the third week of January averaged better than 50 per cent of capacity, comparing with 35 per cent a year ago and an average of 37 per cent in the entire year 1934.

Coal: Bituminous coal production at fourth district mines in December was 11,640,000 tons, 3.8 per cent greater than in December, 1933 and exceeded any similar month since 1930. Mine operations in early 1935 continued at a higher rate than in the two preceding years.

Rubber tires: Production schedules of local tire and rubber plants increased generally in December and continued to show an upward trend in January.

SHOES GAIN TOO
Shoe: Production increased considerably more than seasonally in December, was 37 per cent ahead of the closing month of 1933, and higher than in any corresponding month since 1929.

Indiana House Votes to Ban Alienation Actions

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 2.—Described as a cure for "itching palms in the guise of aching hearts," a bill to outlaw alienation of affections and kindred heart-balm suits went to the senate for action today after passing the lower house by a vote of 87 to 7.

Mrs. Roberta West Nicholson, (Dem.) only woman member of the lower house, was its author and in her maiden speech on the floor termed such suits as "legal blackmail."

Mrs. Nicholson, daughter-in-law of Meredith Nicholson, new minister to Venezuela, said:

"It is my contention that extortion suits of this sort, with their attendant publicity, are a detriment to public morals."

"We doubt the genuineness of the man or woman who advertises his or her heartache to a sensation-seeking public. We suspect, and rightly, that the affliction is not so much an aching heart as an itching palm."

Women, she said, "ask no such privileges as these."

The bill would bar suits for alienation of affections, breach of promise, seduction, and naming of co-respondents in divorce proceedings.

Portsmouth Man Must Serve On Three Charges; Other Cases Deferred

Alfred Clifford, Portsmouth, was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary on three charges of forgery, Saturday, when he pleaded guilty in Judge Joseph W. Adkins' court.

Clifford, arrested in Portsmouth by Deputy Bryan Custer, has written at least eight bad checks and was indicted for three of them. He will serve two of the one to 20 year sentences concurrently while the other will be consecutive, which means that he will have to serve at least two years before being eligible for a parole hearing.

All the six prisoners indicted by the grand jury last Tuesday were arraigned but Clifford was the only one sentenced.

Ray W. Davis, prosecutor, represented the state in court.

Edgar Turner, 18-year-old negro, pleaded guilty to breaking into a confectionery in the Pickaway Co. Livestock Co-operative association sales barn but sentence was deferred by Judge Adkins. Two other youths, Charles Smith and Hugh Montgomery, were turned over to juvenile court in this case.

Foster Speakman, indicted for burglary and larceny, pleaded not guilty and was placed under $1,000 bond.

SPAGHT GIVEN WELFARE JOB

Davey Lauds Akron Man Whom He Wanted as Liquor Control Director

COLUMBUS, Feb. 2.—Oakley Spaght, former state representative from Akron who previously has been chosen by Governor Martin L. Davey as a possible candidate for the position of liquor control director, today was appointed assistant state welfare director by the chief executive.

In a statement, Gov. Davey said:

While it was my desire to have Oakley Spaght occupy the important post of state liquor director, it is apparent constitutional provisions makes him ineligible. Therefore, because of his high character, ability and unquestioned reputation for integrity, energy and real capacity, it has seemed proper to find him another post of importance to the government.

"I doubt if there is any place that requires more of these qualities than that of assistant welfare director which deals with so many state institutions and involves so many millions of dollars expenditure. It may be interesting to note that in these state institutions it is necessary to feed 36,000 people a day and to provide them with clothing and other necessities as well as to supervise the maintenance of numerous buildings and farm acreage."

CHILLICOTHE CITY TREASURY IN NEED

Pay Checks Handed Out Friday But Workers Are Warned no More Money Ready

CHILLICOTHE, Feb. 2.—City employees, given their pay checks for January, were trying to stretch their pennies today.

As they were handed their salaries, City Auditor L. Hibbler informed them that he did not know when they would be paid again.

He explained that only $2,500 was left in the city treasury for various expenses and that no new tax moneys were in sight until March 1, at least.

The city has received no money for its general fund so far this year, although there was a small balance in special funds at the start of the year. The city since has received an allocation of auto tax funds. Drawing against these special funds until the money can be replaced from revenues to the general fund. Hibbler had about $7,000 with which to meet the Friday payroll which used up about $4,500 of this.

There are a number of bills outstanding against special accounts. Hibbler says, including some for the park lake improvement, and he feels that it will be impossible to meet any more payrolls or any portion of them from the remaining funds.

PAYMENT OF TAX DELAYED UNTIL MARCH

Sales Tax Set-up Delays Real Estate Collection, Hoffman Announces

PERSONAL ON FEB. 15

Tax Commission Rules on Store Records

Collection of personal taxes will start February 15 but the real estate tax books will not be open before the middle of March, Earl L. Hoffman, county treasurer, announced today.

The new sales tax set-up has somewhat delayed collection of real estate taxes. Work will be started on the books next week, Mr. Hoffman said. The exact date real taxes can be paid has not yet been determined.

The office has been doing much work under the sale tax division with $4,848.27 having been received from the sale of stamps. A total of $27,300 worth of stamps were received before the sale started.

674 HAVE PERMITS

Six hundred and seventy-four Circleville and Pickaway-co. retailers have purchased $1 vendor's licenses from the county auditor's office while about 525 of them have purchased stamps. Some have purchased stamps more than once, Mr. Hoffman said.

The 1, 2, 3, and 6 cents stamps are put up in bunches and no sales of less than $1 are being made because the packages are not being broken. Persons buying stamps of larger denominations can buy as many as they wish.

Records of all sales and of invoices should be kept. The Herald was informed Saturday by an attendant of the office of Quincy Davis, tax commissioner, in response to a query.

MANY UNCERTAIN

Several local merchants, some of whom are restaurateurs, were uncertain concerning the tax commission's ruling. The informant said the office requested "that records of all invoices and sales be kept to permit our inspectors to quickly ascertain what is taking place in the various stores."

HUEY CONTINUES "DEATH" INQUIRY

Charges Oil Company Planned Assassination; Machine Guns Guard Capital

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 2.—A carefully built chain of evidence designed to support charges that the Standard Oil company backed a purported plot to assassinate Senator Huey Long lay in the records of District Judge J. D. Womack, Long appointee, today as the Louisiana dictator prepared to renew his ex-parte, radio broadcast inquiry into an armed citizen rebellion in his political domain.

The inquiry into the supposed armed uprising and "murder plot" which the administration used as a reason for clamping the parish of East Baton Rouge under martial law, was resumed at 10 o'clock this morning, under the protection of machine guns flanking all approaches to the capitol.

Ernest L. Bourgeois, youthful president of the Square Deal association, anti-Long group, was arrested by the state's secret police force, questioned and then released. Bourgeois fled into hiding last Saturday during the brush between his followers and the militia at the airport.

NEXT WEEK TO SEE CLOSE OF BRUNO'S TRIAL

Defense Expects to Rest By Thursday; Fisch, Sharpe Again Named

WITNESS UNCERTAIN

Reilly in New York Seeking Witnesses

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 2.—Bruno Richard Hauptmann—as calm, non-communicative and unfathomable as ever—laid in his brightly-lit cell today, making the most of another week-end respite from the court room where he is the central figure in the murder trial of the generation.

It may be his last week-end respite. For, by next Saturday, it is quite possible the jury of four women and eight men may be deliberating his fate—death in the electric chair? acquittal? clemency?

Everybody close to the scene realizes that this trial, with its throbbing drama, its strange witnesses and its weird testimony, is gradually drawing to a close.

END BY SATURDAY

By Thursday next the defense will be ready to rest, according to Atty. Edward J. Reilly. Rebuttal testimony by the state will require only a short time and Attorney General David T. Wilentz thinks that by the end of the week the case will be closed.

Then all that will remain will be the closing arguments, the judge's charge to the jury—and the verdict.

Defense Attorney Reilly today was in New York, rounding up witnesses. The week-end adjournment was granted at his request because he frankly admitted to Justice Thomas W. Tamm that he was running out of ready witnesses.

The belief prevails here that the defense has less witnesses yet to summon to the stand than they indicate. They say they still have about thirty to call but nobody can figure where they can get half that many.

Some of the defense witnesses have proved to be ideal foils for the state when subjected to cross-examination. One developed to be a former bootlegger of home-made rum, another ran a restaurant which was raided several times by the police and a third admitted he had been arrested for various crimes, including assault and battery and rape.

A defense witness whose story is especially intriguing is Peter H. Sommer, manager of a building.

SLOT MACHINE OWNERS WARNED

COLUMBUS, Feb. 2.—Six Chillicothe liquor and beer establishments, charged with allowing slot machines in their business places, today were allowed to keep their permits after receiving a warning from Acting Liquor Control Director Joseph Scobell.

Although Scobell had power under a regulation passed by the liquor board to revoke the permits, he merely admonished the owners of the places. He declined to say whether his action was in line with his recent recommendation that the board lift the slot machine ban because he believed it was impossible to enforce it.

The Church Invites You

A REVIVAL OF RELIGION NEEDED

Roger Babson has said, "The churches are to America what a compass is to a ship, or a steering wheel to an automobile. Legislation, labor unions, employers' associations and all other organizations are mere shells of an egg. Nations ultimately rise or fall in accordance with their religions. Our liberty, security and prosperity depends upon the churches. All we have that is worth while, we owe to them. Those of us who are prosperous may think that we can get on without the church, but let us not forget our church. We may have received enough religious momentum from our parents to carry us through but we haven't enough to carry our children through. Only by a revival of religion, in which they must take an active interest, can our children's future be secured." Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

LESSON

Lesson for February 3

PETER'S RESTORATION.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 14:17; Luke 22:31, John 21:10-19; John 21:11-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee, Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep, John 21:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—When Jesus Healed Peter, Try Again.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter Learned When He Failed.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Prove Our Love for Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Test of Loyalty.

As there were seven definite steps in Peter's downfall, so there are seven definite steps in his restoration. These steps in both his downfall and his restoration were most strikingly presented by G. Campbell Morgan at the Bible conference in Northfield in 1908.

I. Christ's Prayer for Peter (Luke 22:31, 32).

Little did Peter realize the testings through which he would be forced to pass. Christ revealed to him that Satan desired to have him to sift as wheat and inform him that he had already prayed for his abiding faith. We see thus that before Peter fell the Lord began the preparation for his reclamation. The Lord knew that soon he would have to announce to him that before the cock crew he would deny him thrice.

II. The Look of Jesus (Luke 22:61, 62).

This look was not one of contempt, but one, doubtless, filled with pity and pain. It revealed the heart of God. It brought to Peter the full consciousness of his cowardice and disloyalty, and his blasphemous words of denial, while at the same time displaying Christ's love and pity.

III. Christ's Message Through the Women (Mark 16:7).

The Lord's message was "Go tell my disciples and Peter." Had the message merely been, "Go tell my disciples," Peter would have believed himself not included. The message indicated that Christ had particular consideration for him and loved him still. What new hope filled Peter's heart as he heard this message from the risen Lord is seen in his words: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" (1 Pet. 1:3).

IV. A Personal Interview With the Risen Lord (Luke 24:34).

The declaration is here made that the risen Lord had appeared to Simon. The nature of the conversation is hidden in mystery. It may be that the Lord reminded him of his boasting self-confidence, his warming himself at the enemies' fire and his blasphemy, but only to assure him of his unchanging love and that the Cross which he shunned was the very means of covering up his grievous sins (Luke 24:34; cf. John 20:1-10).

V. Peter's Open Confession of Love (John 21:11-17).

The disciples had gone back to their fishing. As they returned weary and hungry Christ invited them to breakfast. In connection with this ministry of providing food and warmth, Jesus, by skillful questions, induced Peter to confess him three times. A vital step in Peter's restoration was his professing anew his love for his Lord. What marvelous grace, that the one who had across the fire of the enemy denied his Lord should now across the fire prepared by the Lord confess his love for his Lord.

VI. His Word Given Back (John 21:17, 18).

Instead of putting poor Peter on probation before giving him anything to do, he immediately brought him back into fellowship with his Lord in service. It was because Peter passed satisfactorily the examination and the Lord saw his real love for him that he permitted Peter to begin his work.

VII. Willingness to Suffer for Christ (John 21:18, 19).

While Peter had now openly confessed Christ and had received at the Lord's hands his work, he needed to be made willing to drink the bitter cup of suffering for his Lord. Jesus made it clear to him that he was to follow his Lord in crucifixion. He was now willing to suffer the shame of the cross for the glory of God. Peter, with the other disciples, later counted it joy that they were counted worthy to suffer (Acts 5:41). It was the Cross of Christ over which Peter pondered. After his restoration his greatest happiness was to suffer for Christ's sake.

HARBORING ILL

Many homes and many lives are unhappy because of harbored ill. Once there lived a man whom nobody liked—hard and sullen. To a "good morning" he would grunt sulkily, his eyes fastened to the ground.

The simple truth was that in his youth, a companion had done him a grievous injury. "I'll remember it to my dying day" was his re- action and he did. When his dying day actually came, however, he realized that the rankling memory of that youthful wrong had soured and darkened his whole life.

"I've gone over it by myself every morning," he moaned as he lay gasping in his comfortless shanty. "and I've thought of it every night. I've cursed him a hundred times each day. I see now that my curses have eaten out my soul; they've been like gall on my tongue and gravel in my teeth. My hate has hurt nobody but myself. But God knows it has turned my life into hell."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY SELECTED BY BOWEN
"Take My Advice," a three act comedy by Eugene C. Harter, has been chosen for the Junior class play, and will be presented March 28 and 29.
This is a small town newspaper story. The scene of the play is Eureka, one of those little towns where the principal diversion is watching the daily flyer pass through.
The play is a unique one in this respect, that the characters are of approximately the same importance.
Three thousand audiences have enthusiastically received this sparkling comedy.
The Walter H. Baker company of Boston, Mass., is the publisher of "Take My Advice."
Mr. Bowen is the director in charge of dramatics.

Plays For Supper
The high school orchestra received much praise when it entertained during the chicken supper at the Methodist church last Tuesday evening, January 29, from 5 to 6 o'clock.
The numbers included Panama Exposition, Caravan Club, June Night, Somebody's Sweetheart, Chinese Idol, March of the Brave, and 136th U. S. A. Field Artillery March.

student opinion
Question: Did you enjoy the President's Ball?
Mariamne Bennett, senior: I enjoyed the President's Ball very much. One contributing factor to the pleasure of all who attended, was the excellent music.
George Rader, junior: It was terrific! I think it was the best dance held in Circleville for a long time.
The orchestra was swell and the money went for a good cause. In my opinion it was a howling success.
Anne Thacher, junior: Did I enjoy the President's Ball? I'll say I did. The music was grand, and could that orchestra play it? The crowd was just right, not too large and not too small. I had a simply grand time and I'm sure everyone else did.
Betty Bowsher, freshman: I enjoyed it very much but I would have enjoyed it much more if I hadn't had to think of going to school the following day.
Junior Sweyer, junior: I did. I think that it was better than last year. I liked the orchestra very much, especially the act put on by the director and his partner.
I think that everyone had a good time although the next day I was very sleepy.

BIOLOGY CLASS VISITS LIBRARY
The biology class of the high school visited the Public Library last week to study pictures of birds and nests which that institution recently purchased from Doctor Jones of this city.
Miss Mary Wilder, librarian, explained to the students the details of the making of the illustrations. The pupils also examined the pictures and asked questions relative to them.
The members of the classes wish to thank Miss Wilder for spending her time in talking to them.
Miss Hilder advises the group.

FAMOUS SAYINGS OF INFAMOUS PERSONS
Robert Shadley—"It certainly is a fine day."
Thelma Merz—"Yes Sir! I'll have that typed by the third period."
Bob Watts—"Now that might be true in some cases, but I know a case."
Betty Sayre—"Actually, I thought I'd do it."
Jim Henderson—"I could do that! I know that."
Mariamne Bennett—"Isn't that precious?"
Eleanor Miller—"Some fun!"

TWO JINXES BROKEN BY VARSITY SQUAD
At the end of the first round of the "Tiger" basketball schedule two very definite jinxes have been broken.
The local varsity during this period has defeated Carlton Smith's fast moving Bexley squad for the first time in three years and also won its first out of town game against Marysville.
The following scores have been turned in this season:
Academy 21 Circleville 14
Groveport 24 Circleville 30
Chillicothe 24 Circleville 7
London 10 Circleville 25
Amanda 30 Circleville 27
Westerville 25 Circleville 16
Circleville 21 Ashville 46
Circleville 23 Delaware 26
Bexley 19 Circleville 36
Grandview 30 Circleville 17
Circleville 22 Marysville 17
The varsity opened the second round of its schedule Friday at Westerville and will meet each of its previous league foes again.

English Class Hears Roy Brown's Address
A Chinese burial, which he witnessed in the land of rice and chopsticks, was vividly described to the third period Business English class Friday morning by Mr. Roy "Monk" Brown, recently retired from the United States navy after 17 years' service.
In depicting the ceremony, Mr. Brown, a Circleville resident, related that members of the family in which a death has occurred use the casket as a dining table. "Children," he related, "play leap-frog over the box!"
Continuing, the speaker said that the oldest son in the family sleeps on top of the casket during the time it remains in state (in this instance 49 days).
A treatise of the Chinese communication system, including telephone, telegraph and cable, concluded Mr. Brown's address.

Don Henry was elected president of the Sophomore class by a close margin over Harold Rummel, at the election held last Thursday.
Willard Hostler was elected to the vice-president's chair.
Dorothy Carter defeated June West for the secretarial job and Carl Mader was re-elected treasurer by defeating a large number of candidates running for the "money caretaker" office.
The new president is a three-letter man and is a member of the band and the Hi-Y.

English Class Elects
Eloise Hatzio, new president of Day's Willing Workers 3rd period Business English club, succeeds Martha McCrady, retiring head.
Other newly elected officers include Mary Westenhaver and Dorothy Howell, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.
All three will hold office throughout the 2nd semester.

Mrs. Head Reviews Third Book Here Friday Night

A delightful program of organ music by Miss Abbe Mills Clark preceded the splendid book review given by Mrs. Depew Head, Friday evening, in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Westminster Bible class.

Members of the Young Ladies' Bible class of the Methodist church were guests of the Westminster Bible class for the book review.

Mrs. Head, more appealing than ever, enthralled her audience, as she gave, with a marked degree of accuracy and a thorough understanding of locale, this excellent novel of Franz Werfel entitled "Forty Days of Musa Dagh."

This book, containing 800 pages of a type not generally chosen as a best seller, was one of the five highest for the last five months, also the book of the month for December. The book contains no humor and has a most difficult title. Mrs. Head, before preparing her review, found it necessary to interview Mr. Khourie of the Khourie Shop of Columbus in order to give the correct pronunciation to the 60 proper names of the characters appearing in the novel also the innumerable villages that are mentioned.

The author, Franz Werfel, while visiting factories in Armenia noticed the pained faces of the Armenian children and inquired as to the cause of this condition. He was informed that these children were survivors of the siege of "Musa Dagh." He inquired further, hence the astounding facts of his novel tell the heart-rending story of this true incident.

Armenia was at one time conquered by Alexander the Great, held for two centuries. In 1541 it was conquered by the Turks, in 1878 by the Russians and then Persia obtained a part of it. All that was left of Armenia was a republic, a shrewd but honest people. In 1910 all internal and external trade was owned by the Armenians, this the Turks resented.

Turkey gave threats for the Armenians to leave this section of the country. Gabriel Bogradian, the hero, youngest grandson of Avelis Bogradian, was worshipped throughout Armenia as the patron saint, teacher and philosopher. Gabriel went to Paris met and married Juliette, a lovely French woman. Steven, their son was born. At this time, his brother asks him to return to Stamboul. Trouble is raging throughout Turkey and Armenia. War has started in Belgium, it is July 1914.

Gabriel wants to send Juliette and Steven to Switzerland but she refuses and they visit the mountain of Musa Dagh, while their Gabriel dreams of war. A deep love of father for son envelopes Gabriel and Steven. As they descend he finds plots to surround the villages near Musa Dagh.

He visits an old friend, who presents him with a coin with this inscription, "To be in spirit in us and beyond us." He advises Gabriel to return home. In his villa he finds Juliette, surrounded by admirers, unaware of the impending dangers so near them, only he and the priest realize their serious plight.

At last the war starts in the little country of Zeilum, Armenians are killed by the Turks and driven away. Like animals, women and children perish by the roadside. Large groups of them were used for construction work by the Turks and then shot down so that the race could not be recreated. Gabriel brooded over the trouble.

Steven, now a young man, and Juliette took refuge on Musa Dagh. He tells priest of plans of the Turks to wipe out the seven villages and with the priests help they organize the people and order them to take their belongings up on Musa Dagh. A settlement was built on the summit and military fortifications around the mountain. Along with all other anxiety, a windstorm nearly relieved them of everything they had salvaged.

Morris, an Armenian, arrives and becomes an admirer of Juliette, who has been neglected by Gabriel, who is now military chief and is accompanied with the unsupportable task of saving his people.

The Turks make their first drive on the people encamped on Musa

Dagh and are driven back by the 5000 soldiers, who are armed with the crudest of military equipment. A second attack is waged and still the Armenians repel the Turks, however there is no rejoicing as too many were killed. The Turkish general is unable to secure aid of a neighboring general because of military jealousy. Again personal jealousy saved Musa Dagh. Only one night was left until the big drive of the Turks on the Armenians. A message had to be sent. Haik, a chum of Steven, was chosen to deliver it.

Morris, the lover of Juliette, tries to persuade her to leave the camp but she is stricken with Marsh fever and is cared for by Skela, an Armenian girl, who is madly in love with Gabriel, however he has only a kindly affection for her because of her kindness to Juliette.

Steven leaves the mountain and is stricken with marsh fever, taken captive by the Turks. He dies. A large wooden cross marked his grave on the 21st day of the siege of Musa Dagh.

The Turk soldiers climb the Mt. of Musa Dagh, steal all the sheep and provisions. The 40th day dawned, the priest too weak to stand held mass. Three days of fighting had prevailed. He was tied to the cross by the Turkish rebels. As they gathered there a stray bullet hit Gabriel, but he gains consciousness from the shock. An enraged soldier finds a flag that Juliette had made, which bore this inscription, "Christians in Need." In his anger he waved it back and forth. A French fleet saw the flag and landed in the harbor below.

The Admiral of the fleet told Gabriel it was his leadership, possible only with God's help, that brought all these people to safety. Juliette, on a stretcher, was taken aboard a ship bound for Paris. Gabriel eluded the admiral and slowly climbed back up Musa Dagh, with his coin in hand, "To the Inexplicable in us and beyond us." Sharing the destiny of God he crossed to his son's grave, where he was shot through the head by a Turk. There death was not defeat, but a symbol of man alive in the shadow of death.

"Who knows how soon our days are numbered. Live nobly rise above the earth, achieve that thing the Armenians say of Gabriel on the shrine at Musa Dagh, 'fundamental' all living, one God, one Christian, unbeliever is inexplicable in us and us."

Upsets Grandview to Throw League Race Into Deadlock

The Central Buckeye league race was upset considerably Friday evening when Jerry Kingsmore's Westerville team, hungry for victory after tasting five defeats, reached new heights by handing Grandview a 30-11 beating.

The loss was the first for Grandview but it dropped the Bobcats to a tie with Westerville for the fourth spot.

Westerville, in a game that resembled a football contest on a basketball floor, defeated the Tigers 28-18.

Delaware defeated Bexley, 22-21, handing Carlton Smith's team its fourth straight defeat.

BALLENGER STOPPED
The Tigers were just as good a basketball team as Westerville Friday evening with Dick Melson effectively stopping BALLENGER, tall inside Westerville center.

The final score was just the result of a tall and heavy team gradually beating a smaller team into submission. It was nothing out of the ordinary to see a Westerville player shoot at the hoop, miss, then tear leading into the group of players trying to retrieve the ball.

Referee Krieger, who boasts that he has worked some of the best college games in Ohio this year, would have looked much better on the back of a horse, Friday evening, than he did on the basketball court. He was always about two plays back of the ball game.

Melson was the only player discharged on fouls and a couple of those called on him were lurid.

The game was typical of all played at Westerville with roughness, most of which was uncalled for, predominating the play.

TIED AT HALF
The Tigers took a 6-2 lead at the first period but the score was tied 18-18 at the half. Westerville was tied 18-13 at the end of the third period.

The Tiger's zone defense worked well at times but it left Robertson open too often at the side of the court and Weston too often in the middle just back of the foul circle.

These two boys did most of Westerville's scoring, the former getting eight points and the latter six. Henry, a forward, also scored six of the winners.

Grant tallied eight of the Tigers' points while John Jenkins, for the first time this year, went scoreless.

Westerville was handicapped by the loss of McVay, clever guard, through injuries. He broke his right ankle during football season and broke it again in practice this week.

RESERVES VICTORS IN 22 TO 19 FRAY

The Tiger reserves gained revenge for a defeat handed them last year by defeating Westerville's reserves 22-19 Friday.

The Tigers had a long lead through part of the game but Westerville was gradually sneaking up as the whistle blew.

Captain Willard Freley topped the Reserve scorers with eight points, all scored in the first half.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

TOO EARLY? MAYBE!

It's February 2, ground-hog day, and in not so many more weeks little white pills will start to be found the highways of the Pickaway Country club golf course and the county road is looking forward to a real season.

The trustees are contemplating and giving considerable study to a new membership plan which would permit many more of the city's and county's residents to partake of the club facilities.

GILMORE CHAIRMAN
Dr. Glen D. Phillips, club president, today announced that he has again named reliable Charlie Gilmore as chairman of the greens committee.

Other members of the committee are Robert Musser, John D. Bragg and Felix R. Caldwell.

Arrangements have not yet been completed for the operation of the "shop" this summer. Tink Hill and Bob Friece presided during the last playing season. For your information, Dewey C. Black is the club champion.

Bill Bonthron, great Princeton miler, is a stamp collector. Harvard gets an even break with Princeton in that respect, as Bob Harlow, new football coach, is a demon philatelist, too.

Most thoroughbred race horses sleep standing up. Man O'War was an exception. At bedtime he hit the mattress like the rest of us. Several members of the Chicago White Sox infield are said to sleep standing up, however.

PATIENCE REQUIRED
Be of good cheer. Just suppose you were Jack McQuinn, a young first baseman the Yankees have stationed in Toronto to wait for Lou Gehrig to wear out! Mr. McQuinn is in about the same position as a movie theatre piano and organ player I know who is patiently waiting for the talkies to "blow over."

Jack Quinn, who took a few days off upon reaching his fifty-ninth birthday, reports he is ready to resume his career as a major league pitcher if somebody will sign him up. Cleveland hasn't heard from Cy Young. The youngest catcher the White Sox have is Luke Sewell, who is 34 years old, and just a rookie compared to Ruel and Shea. But then the age of White Sox catchers doesn't make a whole lot of difference.

NICE OF YOU, MAX
That was a swell compliment Max Bear paid to heavyweights the other day. Speaking of a proposed tour of Europe he said his party would stop off in London where his brother Buddy could get a bit of exercise by knocking off Jack Petersen, British champ.

SPORTSMEN TO GO AFTER CROWS
Twenty-five crows have been released in Pickaway-co by the state conservation department. Their legs are banded with numbers from one to 25. Prizes for the birds range from $1 to $25.

The conservation division is determined to reduce the crow population in Ohio and is taking this means to do so.

H. E. Betz, president of the Pickaway-co Farmer's and Sportsman's association, urges county sportsmen to hunt the crows.

W. H. Reinhardt, chief of the conservation department, calls the crows the "out-of-doors gangster."

Reinhardt outlined several excellent methods of slaughtering the "black rascals": organize "vigilante groups" and shoot into crow roosts at night; many roosts contain thousands of crows; use mounted hawks or owls as decoys to attract crows; punch down their nests during the spring.

MAC SMITH AHEAD
GLENDAL, Cal., Feb. 2.—MacDonald Smith, veteran campaigner and shotmaker extraordinary, today was the center of attention as he teed off with money-golfer Gene Sarzen and Denny Shute, former British open title holder in the third round of the Oakmont $6,500 open tournament.

The Carnoustie master had forged to the front in the second round with a sparkling 67, three strokes under tournament par.

Smith's 36 hole total was 135, placing him five strokes ahead of his nearest competitor.

Behind Mac the field is bunched. Four players, slender Ray Mangrum of Los Angeles, with 70-70-140; veteran Lex Robson of Toronto, Canada, with 70-70-140; youthful Jimmy Hines of Timber Point, I. I., with 72-68-140, and "Light Horse" Harry Cooper of Chicago, with 70-70-140, are trailing "the Smith"—hoping he may break enough to permit them to overtake him.

5 TEAMS WIN DOUBLE BILLS

Ashville Boys Win But Girls Are Held to Tie By Scioto-Twp Team

Pickaway-co loop basketball games went according to schedule Friday evening with favorites coming through.

Ashville boys defeated Scioto 31 to 10 while the Commercial boys were holding the Ashville lassies to a 10-10 deadlock. Since in girls' basketball overtime is not permitted the game ended that way.

Walnut-twp teams, boys and girls, won a double header from the Pickaway teams on the latter court in a splendid evening of entertainment. Decisions in both games were not certain until the games were over.

Walnut girls won 15 to 11 and the boys 27 to 24. Pickaway reserves defeated the Walnut reserve team 30 to 3.

Perry-twp won a double bill from Jackson-twp at Atlanta, the boys coping 28 to 7 and the girls 16 to 11.

Darby-twp swept a twin bill from Washington-twp when the boys went on a scoring rampage to win 51 to 8 and the girls easily snatched victory 24 to 11.

Muhlenberg's two teams won double headers from Deer Creek in games played Thursday evening. The boys score was 22-17 while the girls were not quite so close.

Salt Creek games have not been reported.

New Holland took a brace of contests from Salt Creek on the Adelphi court. The boys won 35-8 and the girls 25-13.

The games closed the Salt Creek home season, three games remaining away from home.
